Your 2014-2015 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

A. Student’s Information

Student’s Last Name ____________________________ Student’s First Name ____________________________ Student’s M.I. ____________________________

Student’s Social Security Number ________________

Student’s Street Address (include apt. no.) ____________________________________________________________

City ____________________________ State ____________________________ Zip Code ____________________________

Student’s Date of Birth ____________________________

Student’s Email Address ____________________________________________________________

Student’s Alternate or Cell Phone Number ____________________________________________________________

B. Number of Household Members and Number in College

Number of Household Members: List below the people in the parents’ household. Include:

- The student.
- The parents (including a stepparent) even if the student doesn’t live with the parents.
- The parents’ other children if the parents will provide more than half of the children’s support from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2014-2015. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- Other people if they now live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of the other people’s support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2015.

Number in College: Include below information about any household member, excluding the parents, who will be enrolled at least half time in a degree, diploma or certificate program at an eligible postsecondary educational institution any time between July 1, 2014, and June 30, 2015, include the name of the college.

If more space is needed, provide a separate page with the student’s name and ID number at the top.

Note: We may require additional documentation if we have reason to believe that the information regarding the household members enrolled in eligible postsecondary educational institutions is inaccurate.
C. Verification of 2013 Income Information for Parent Tax Filers

Important Note: The instructions below apply to each parent included in the household. Notify the financial aid office if the parents filed separate IRS income tax returns for 2013 or had a change in marital status after the end of the 2013 tax year on December 31, 2013.

Instructions: Complete this section if the parents filed or will file a 2013 IRS income tax return(s). The best way to verify income is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT) that is part of FAFSA on the Web at FAFSA.gov. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2013 income information that was transferred into the student’s FAFSA using the IRS DRT if that information was not changed.

In most cases, for electronic return filers, 2013 IRS income tax return information for the IRS DRT is available within 2-3 weeks after the 2013 electronic IRS income tax return has been accepted by the IRS. Generally, for filers of 2013 paper IRS income tax returns, the 2013 IRS income tax return information is available for the IRS DRT within 8-11 weeks after the 2013 paper IRS income tax return has been received by the IRS. Contact the financial aid office if more information is needed about using the IRS DRT.

Check the box that applies:

☐ The parents have used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web to transfer 2013 IRS income tax return information into the student’s FAFSA.

☐ The parents have not yet used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web, but will use the tool to transfer 2013 IRS income tax return information into the student’s FAFSA once the 2013 IRS income tax return has been filed.

☐ The parents are unable or choose not to use the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web and instead will provide the school a 2013 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s).

To obtain a 2013 IRS Tax Return Transcript, go to www.IRS.gov and click on the “Order a Return or Account Transcript” link. Make sure to request the “IRS Tax Return Transcript” and not the “IRS Tax Account Transcript.” Use the Social Security Number (or the IRS individual taxpayer number) and the date of birth of the first person listed on the 2013 IRS income tax return and the address on file with the IRS (normally this will be the address used on the 2013 IRS income tax return). In most cases, for electronic filers, a 2013 IRS Tax Return Transcript may be requested from the IRS within 2-3 weeks after the 2013 IRS income tax return has been accepted by the IRS. Generally, for filers of 2013 paper IRS income tax returns, the 2013 IRS Tax Return Transcript may be requested within 8-11 weeks after the 2013 paper IRS income tax return has been received by the IRS.

If the parents filed separate 2013 IRS income tax returns, 2013 IRS Tax Return Transcripts must be provided for both.

☐ Check here if a 2013 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) is provided.

☐ Check here if a 2013 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) will be provided later.

D. Verification of 2013 Income Information for Parent Nontax Filers

The instructions and certifications below apply to each parent included in the household. Complete this section if the parents will not file and are not required to file a 2013 income tax return with the IRS.

Check the box that applies:

☐ Neither parent was employed and had no income earned from work in 2013.

☐ One or both parents were employed in 2013 and have listed below the names of all employers, the amount earned from each employer in 2013, and whether an IRS W-2 form is provided. (Provide copies of all 2013 IRS W-2 forms issued to the parents by their employers). List every employer even if the employer did not issue an IRS W-2 form.

Note: We may require you to provide documentation from the IRS that indicates a 2013 IRS income tax return was not filed with the IRS.

E. Verification of 2013 Income Information for Student Tax Filers

Important Note: The instructions below apply to the student and spouse, if the student is married. Notify the financial aid office if the student or spouse filed separate IRS income tax returns for 2013 or had a change in marital status after the end of the 2013 tax year on December 31, 2013.

Instructions: Complete this section if the student and spouse filed or will file a 2013 IRS income tax return(s). The best way to verify income is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT) that is part of FAFSA on the Web at FAFSA.gov. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2013 income information that was transferred into the student’s FAFSA using the IRS DRT if that information was not changed.

F. SNAP

The parents certify that ____________________________, a member of the parents’ household, received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2012 or 2013. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

The parents’ household includes:

- The student.
- The parents (including a stepparent) even if the student doesn’t live with the parents.
- The parents’ other children if the parents will provide more than half of the children’s support from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2014-2015. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- Other people if they now live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of the other people’s support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2015.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2012 or 2013.

G. Child Support Paid

One of the parents included in the household or the student paid child support in 2013. List below the names of the persons who paid the child support, the names of the persons to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom the child support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2013 for each child.

If more space is needed, provide a separate page that includes the student’s name and ID number at the top.

H. High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student’s high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2014–2015:

 A copy of the student’s high school diploma.
 A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
 A copy of the student’s General Educational Development (GED) certificate, an official GED transcript that indicates the student passed the exam or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate.
 For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the “secondary school leaving certificate” or other similar document.
 An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
 For a homeschooled student from a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
 For a homeschooled student from a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

A student who is unable to obtain the documentation listed above must contact the financial aid office.

I. Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose (To Be Signed at the Institution)

The student must appear in person at the University of Pikeville to verify his or her identity by presenting a valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver’s license, other state-issued ID, or passport. The institution will maintain a copy of the student’s photo ID that is annotated by the institution with the date it was received and reviewed and the name of the official at the institution authorized to collect the student’s ID.

In addition, the student must sign, in the presence of the institutional official, the following statement:

Statement of Educational Purpose

I certify that I ___________________________ am the individual signing this
