University of Pikeville
Requirements for Admission
International Undergraduate Application for Admissions

Application Deadline: July 1 for admission consideration to fall semester and December 1 for admission to spring semester.

In order to be considered for admission to the University of Pikeville, all non-U.S. citizen applicants are required to submit the following to the Global Education Office:

Admission Checklist

- An international student admission application instead of the general admission application for U.S. citizens (included).
- Certified copies of all previous high school and post-high school academic records (required: English translation send to World Education Services (WES) see: http://www.wes.org or AACRAO International Education Services (IES) see: http://ies.aacrao.org.
- Affidavit of Sponsorship, if applicable.
- Financial Statement form, evidence of ability to meet financial obligations during the enrollment period.
- Evidence of English proficiency determined as follows:
  TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) score: Official TOEFL total score of 68, (Internet-based) or 190, (computer-based) or 520, (paper-based) minimum;
- Application deadline: July 1 for fall semester and December 1 for spring semester.

Once your credentials are in compliance, the University of Pikeville will create a Student Application (Form I-20) and submit the Form I-20 in SEVIS (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System).

Requirements

The Global Education Office will keep a copy of the following items in each student’s file:

- Copy of current I-20 (each term, update tuition annually)
- Photocopy of I-94 (student can ask for “data fix” if name, DOB or country of citizenship is different)
- Photocopy of VISA and passport
- End of term unofficial transcript, updated every term
- Current local address and phone number

The university considers for admission any individual who meets all of the university’s admission standards and submits a completed application within appropriate deadlines. If the home country is anything other than the United States, information is provided to assist the applicant in understanding immigration requirements for acquisition of a student visa. There is no specific question in the admission application requiring a disclosure of an applicant’s legal status. In the application, the prospective student is required to designate a home country. Also, if in the application process international educational credentials are submitted, questions concerning visa status may arise.
