Application

The University of Pikeville, in conjunction with the Kentucky College of Osteopathic Medicine (KYCOM), presents a cooperative eight-year program (4+4) leading to a bachelor’s degree (B.A./B.S.) and the degree Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.).

Applications will be open to qualified high school seniors. Selected students who participate in the program, maintain the required undergraduate GPA, achieve the required score on the MCAT, and exhibit appropriate ethical conduct are guaranteed admission to the medical school upon completion of their bachelor’s degree and pre-med requirements.

Applications must be received by February 1.
Applications must be received by January 31. Interviews will be conducted by the KYCOM Admissions Committee in March and April. Up to 10 scholars will be selected each year. After completing the bachelor’s degree program at the University of Pikeville, scholars will be automatically admitted to KYCOM if they have maintained a 3.4 cumulative and science GPA in undergraduate work, score a minimum of 24 on the MCAT, participate fully in program activities, and exhibit proper ethical qualities and conduct.

Additional notes:
- It is envisioned that extracurricular programming will be developed specific to the OMSP, e.g., participation in health-related community service activities, pre-med club activities, community physician “shadowing,” select KYCOM student activities, etc.
- Applications will be processed by the undergraduate admissions office.
- The Osteopathic Medical Scholars Program (OMSP) will not carry a monetary award, but OMSP applicants will be eligible to pursue other scholarship opportunities.

~ Eligibility ~

OMSP applicants must:
- Be applying as an incoming freshman (current high school senior)
- Have a minimum 1200 SAT or 26 ACT
- Be in the top 10 percent of graduating class or 3.50 GPA on a 4.0 scale
- Be a resident of Kentucky, West Virginia or Virginia

TECHNICAL STANDARDS

KYCOM must maintain curriculum requirements deemed essential to the education of an osteopathic physician. A candidate for the D.O. degree must have multiple abilities and skills, and be able to perform these standards in a reasonably independent manner. These standards include observation; communication; motor; sensory; strength and mobility; conceptual, integrative, and quantitative; and behavioral and social attributes. Each applicant must read the KYCOM technical standards to ensure s/he has the ability to succeed in a medical curriculum. The technical standards may be accessed at www.upike.edu/college-of-osteopathic-medicine/current/technical_standards

I CERTIFY I HAVE READ, UNDERSTAND, AND AM ABLE TO MEET, WITH OR WITHOUT REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS, THE TECHNICAL STANDARDS FOR ADMISSION.
