Purpose

University of Pikeville – Kentucky College of Osteopathic Medicine (KYCOM) employs competent faculty members, qualified to accomplish the mission. When determining acceptable qualifications of faculty, KYCOM considers the highest degree earned in a discipline, competence, effectiveness, experience, professional licensure, and other demonstrated competencies and achievements that contribute to effective teaching and student learning outcomes.

Policy Statement

University of Pikeville – Kentucky College of Osteopathic Medicine (KYCOM) is responsible for verifying and documenting faculty qualifications. KYCOM uses the following credentialing guidelines:

- KYCOM only employs faculty members holding degree(s) from an accredited institution appropriate to the level of instruction.
- An up to date curriculum vitae (CV) must be provided prior to the faculty member's start date
- An up to date copy of the faculty member's licensure
- A face copy of current malpractice insurance, if applicable
- KYCOM will complete a comprehensive background screening for all new faculty members
- Faculty credentials are reviewed annually

All instruction of KYCOM students at affiliated or educational sites must be conducted under the supervision of academically credentialed and approved faculty. KYCOM's Office of Clinical Affairs is committed to monitoring licensure, board certifications and malpractice insurance of clinical faculty members. However, in the event there is a change to the faculty member's licensure, board certification and/or malpractice insurance, the Office of Clinical Affairs should be notified immediately.
